

Shama Lakeview Asoke Bangkok

Shama is the Sanskrit term for peace and tranquility, and these qualities are perfectly reflected in the new look and feel of the inviting park-inspired interiors at Shama Lakeview Asoke Bangkok. At this city centre address, residents and guests can retreat in a calming setting that's truly a home away from home.

Style

With its smart, modern designs greatly influenced by everyday scenes of the nearby Benjakitti Park and lake, Shama Lakeview Asoke Bangkok is tailored for both business and leisure travellers. Divided into two high-rise towers overlooking the impressive lake and the picturesque Bangkok skyline, Shama Lakeview Asoke Bangkok offers 429 studios and apartments in a wide range of configurations from studios to three-bedroom residences. Each apartment also features a signature bed-head wall composition of the park's migratory bird life, adding a touch of nature reminiscent of the diverse worldwide nationalities who set up nest at this property.

Specially-commissioned art, installation and furnishings along the residential hallways and each apartment reflect outdoor elements including clouds mirrored on the lake's surface, trees billowing in the breeze, stonework from the pavement, picnic grass lawns and ripples from falling rain. The newly-refurbished interior atriums on certain residential floors feature signature pendant lighting installations influenced by falling rain, which depicts the significance of water and rainfall to Thai culture and the prized lake views from the property.

From its calming hues to stylish interiors, the property's home-like qualities make it ideal for long-stay residents as well as those visiting for a quick getaway. A peaceful urban residential retreat in one of the capital's most prestigious neighbourhoods.
