DESTINATION AMARI

Guests are encouraged to experience the local culture, whether it is through visiting nearby attractions or by attending a festival or trying a local delicacy. Local must-see attractions in Buriram include:

Thunder Castle Football Stadium: Home to Thailand's treble champions Buriram United, the ultra-modern Thunder Castle Football Stadium has played host to some of Asia's best teams and competitions. The largest club-football stadium in Thailand with a maximum capacity of 24,000, it regularly draws big crowds on match days. Ticket prices start from THB 80 while stadium tours can also be booked.

Muang Tam Stone Sanctuary (Prasat Muang Tam): A Hindu sanctuary built in the 11th century, the main structures of this magnificent Khmer-era temple are the five brick pagodas enclosed by two walls. Highlights of Prasat Muang Tam or Stone Castle of the Humble City include meticulously carved lintels recounting Hindu tales adorning the doorways or the four large pools finished with serpent designs

Phanom Rung Historical Park: Over a thousand years old, this majestic Khmer temple sits 400 metres above sea level on the rim of an extinct volcano. Originally a Hindu shrine dedicated to Shiva and symbolising Mount Kailash, his heavenly dwelling, the incredible designs on the pagoda, columns and doorways exquisitely tell a story of gods in Hinduism. A local heritage site, Phanom Rung Historical Park is a must-see when visiting Buriram.
