

FIND YOUR ELEMENT WITH AMARI VANG VIENG

Occupying a picturesque spot between Vientiane and Luang Prabang in the south-eastern country of Laos is Vang Vieng. Once a sleepy stopover town between two historic trading posts, Vang Vieng has grown into a hub for the nature lover and those seeking a holiday off the beaten track. Amari Vang Vieng serves as the perfect base to explore this luscious countryside.

Set along the Nam Song River and surrounded by dramatic limestone mountains, Amari Vang Vieng offers the Amari signatures for a comfortable stay, whilst keeping with the standards of an international hotel. Designed to meet the needs of the modern traveller, the room and hotel interior spaces are inspired by its natural surroundings or the “Elements of Vang Vieng”; “water” represented by the meandering Nam Song River, “earth” from the limestone karst mountains towering nearby, “wood” from the lush green forests enveloping the town and “energy”, reflective of the unique sense of tranquillity in Vang Vieng, juxtaposed with the myriad activities and adventures to discover.

Featuring 160 rooms ranging from Superior, Deluxe and One Bedroom Suites to the Executive One Bedroom Suite, the rooms and suites at Amari Vang Vieng offer a choice of city or mountain views, each with the “Elements of Vang Vieng” highlighted through the decor, colours and materials.

A journey is not complete without exploring the tastes, along with the sights. Amari Vang Vieng is right in the heart of town and guests can venture out to enjoy the local cuisine and bars. For those wanting to stay closer to their home base, Essence is Amari Vang Vieng’s all-day dining restaurant which draws inspiration from the street foods of Asia. Guests can enjoy local Laotian cuisine along with Thai and other international dishes whilst gazing at the scenery. Essence is the perfect spot to start a day of adventures or unwind at sundown. For a little afternoon pick-me-up, guests can head to Cascade, serving delicious coffee and scrumptious baked goods and light snacks.
